Printing from your laptop

Printing from a laptop

Login to MyAUR and then click MyPrint under quick links on the left side navigation. Alternatively go to the URL <https://myprint.aur.edu>

Login with your AUR network/email credentials. If you do not have this information, please contact computerservices@aur.edu

Click the Browse button to select your file. Select your options (black and white, duplex etc) and then click print.

You should receive confirmation that your document is ready to be printed (see screenshot below).

Go to any campus multifunction printer, swipe your card and release your job.
